

Mentorloop Acceptable Use Policy

This Acceptable Use Policy applies to Mentorloop's websites and the Mentorloop Web Platform (including www.mentorloop.com, app.mentorloop.com and localised or customised versions and related domains and subdomains), "Platform".

In order to maintain secure and effective operation of the Platform, we require our users to agree not to misuse it. Specifically, the Customer agrees not to:

1. Use the Platform for any illegal purpose or in violation of any laws (including without limitation intellectual property, data and privacy laws.)
2. Use the Platform to violate or encourage the violation of the legal rights of others.
3. Use the Platform to violate the privacy of others or to collect or gather other users' personal information from the Platform.
4. Use the Platform to harass, bully or intimidate others.
5. Use the Platform to generate or send unsolicited communications, advertising or spam, or to cause Mentorloop to become impaired in its ability to send communication on its own or on its customers' behalf.
6. Use the Platform to disable, interfere with or circumvent any aspect of the Platform.
7. Use the Platform to intentionally distribute viruses, worms, malware, corrupted files or other items of a destructive or deceptive manner.
8. Overwhelm or attempt to overwhelm Mentorloop's infrastructure by imposing an unreasonably large load on the Platform.
9. Modify or disable the Platform in any manner that interferes with or disrupts the integrity or performance of the Platform or related systems, network or data.
10. Tamper with, hack or reverse engineer the Platform, circumvent any security or authentication measures of the Platform or attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Platform or related systems, networks or data.

Mentorloop retains the right to temporarily or permanently suspend a Customer's account or access to the Platform without notice or liability if Mentorloop determines that a Customer has violated this Acceptable Use Policy.